Story

In a colorful valley where six dinosaurs live, every dino glows with a feeling — Anger, Disgust, Sadness, Joy, Fear, and Surprise. Together they learn that emotions aren't enemies, but friends who help them understand the world. Through laughter, tears, and stomps that shake the ground, the dinos discover that all emotions — big or small, happy or scary — belong in their hearts. Because learning to feel is the bravest thing of all.
